FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
AND ANNUAL AUDIT
REPORT

FOR THE YEAR ENDED
DECEMBER 31, 2014

Independent Auditor's Report

Board of Directors
PFA Security Asset Management, Inc.
704 Lisburn Road
Camp Hill , PA 17011

Report on the Financial Statements

I have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of PFA Security Asset Management, Inc. as of December 31, 2014 and the related statements of income, changes in stockholder's equity, changes in liabilities to claims of general creditors, and cash flows for the year ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of PFA Security Asset Management, Inc. management. My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit.

Auditor's Responsibility

I conducted this audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. I believe that my audit provide a reasonable basis for my opinion.

Opinion

In my opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of PFA Security Asset Management, Inc. as of December 31, 2014, and results of its operations and its cash flows to the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

Other Matters

The Net Capital Computation has been subjected to audit procedures performed with audit of PFA Security Asset Management, Inc. financial statements. The Net Capital Computation is the responsibility of PFA Security Asset Management, Inc. 's management. My audit procedures included determining whether the Net Capital Computation reconciles to the financial statements or the underlying accounting and other records as applicable, and performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the Net Capital Computation. In forming my opinion on the Net Capital Computation, I evaluated whether the Net Capital Computation, including its form and content is presented in conformity 17 C.F.R. § 240 17a-5. In my opinion, the Net Capital

Computation is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

PFA SECURITY ASSET MANAGEMENT, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 2014

NOTE A – SUMMARY OF ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Accounting principles followed by PFA Security Asset Management, Inc. (the Company) and the methods of applying those principles which materially affect the determination of financial position, results of operation and cash flows are summarized below:

Organization

The Company was incorporated in the State of Arizona effective July 20, 1999. The Company has adopted a calendar year.

Description of Business

The Company, located in Camphill, PA is a broker and dealer in securities registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and is a member of FINRA. The Company operates under SEC Rule 15c3-3 (k)(1), which provides an exemption for "Limited Business".

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements of the Company have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting and accordingly reflect all significant receivables, payables, and other liabilities.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers as cash all short-term investments with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Accounts Receivable – Recognition of Bad Debt

The Company considers accounts receivable to be fully collectible; accordingly, no allowance for doubtful accounts is required. If amounts become uncollectible, they will be charged to operations when that determination is made.

Revenue Recognition

Commission revenues are recorded by the Company when the services are rendered.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

PFA SECURITY ASSET MANAGEMENT, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 2014

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Financial instruments that are subject to fair value disclosure requirements are carried in the financial statements at amount that approximate fair value and include cash and cash equivalents. Fair values are based on quoted market prices and assumptions concerning the amount and timing of estimated future cash flows and assumed discount rates reflecting varying degrees of perceived risk.

Comprehensive Income

Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 130, Reporting Comprehensive Income, establishes requirements for disclosure of Comprehensive Income that includes certain items previously not included in the statement of income, including unrealized gains and losses on available-for-sales securities and foreign currency translation adjustment among others. During the year ended December 31, 2014, the Company did not have any components of Comprehensive Income to report.

Concentrations

The company concentration is services, which is the sale of investment company products and variable products and variable insurance contracts.

The Company received greater than 90% of its income from several providers.

Income taxes

Effective July 21, 1999, the Company elected "S" corporation status for federal income tax purposes. Under "S" corporation regulations, net income or loss is reportable for tax purposes by the shareholders. Accordingly, no federal income taxes are included in the accompanying financial statements.

NOTE B – NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

Pursuant to the net capital provisions of Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, the Company is required to maintain a minimum net capital, as defined under such provisions. Net capital and the related net capital ratio may fluctuate on a daily basis.

There were no material inadequacies in the amount reported as Net Capital in the audited Computation of Net Capital and the broker-dealer's corresponding in audited Part IIA of the FOCUS report required under Rule 15c3-1.

NOTE C – POSSESSION OR CONTROL REQUIREMENTS

The Company does not have any possession or control of customer's funds or securities. There were no material inadequacies in the procedures followed in adhering to the exemptive provisions of SEC Rule 15c-3-3(k)(i) by promptly transmitting all customer funds to the investment company who carries the customer accounts.

NOTE D – SIPC EXCLUSION

Statement Regarding Exclusion from Membership in SIPC

In accordance with Rule 17a-5(e)(4) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, we have performed the procedures enumerated below with respect to Exclusion from the Securities Investor Protection corporation (SIPC) for the period this audit period, which were agreed to by the Company and, where applicable, any relevant parties, solely to assist you and the other relevant parties in evaluating the Company's compliance with the Exclusion from Membership.

requirements. The agreed-upon procedures engagement was conducted in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The sufficiency of these procedures is solely the responsibility of those parties relevant to this report. Consequently, we make no representation regarding the sufficiency of the procedures described below either for the purpose for which this report has been requested or for any other purpose. The procedures we performed and our findings are as follows:

The Company may be excluded from membership in SIPC [SEA Rule 17a-5(e)(4)] due to certain exclusions, which could include one or more of the following: limited to transactions in security futures products, business limited exclusively to the distribution of mutual funds, the sale of variable annuities, the business of insurance, or the furnishing of investment advice to investment companies or insurance company separate accounts, and broker-dealers whose principal business, in determination of SIPC, is outside the United States and its territories. According to a review of the Company's business, it has been determined that the Company is excluded from membership in SIPC; its business was limited to the distribution of shares of registered open end investment companies or unit investment trusts and/or the sale of variable annuities.

Attached hereto is a copy of the Form SIPC-3 filed by the Company for the audit period.

I have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Representation Letter of Exemptions in which (1) PFA Security Asset Management, Inc. identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. § 15c3-3(k) under which PFA Security Asset Management, Inc. claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. § 15c3-3(k)(1), and (2) PFA Security Asset Management, Inc. stated that PFA Security Asset Management, Inc. met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. PFA Security Asset Management, Inc.'s management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

My review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about PFA Security Asset Management, Inc.'s compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, I do not express such an opinion.

Based on my review, I'm not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(1) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

In accordance with Rule 17a-5©(4) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, we have performed the procedures enumerated below with respect to the accompanying Schedule of Assessment and Payments [Transitional Assessment Reconciliation (Form SIPC-7) to the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC) for the period January 1, 2014 to December 31, 2014, which were agreed to by PFA Security Asset Management, Inc. and the Securities and Exchange Commission, Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. and the SIPC, solely to assist you and other specified parties in evaluating PFA Security Asset Management, Inc. compliance with the applicable instructions of the Transitional Assessment Reconciliation (Form SIPC-7). PFA Security Asset Management, Inc.'s management is responsible for PFA Security Asset Management, Inc. compliance with those requirements. This agreed-upon procedures engagement was conducted in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The sufficiency of these procedures is solely the responsibility of those parties specified in this report. Consequently, we make no representation regarding the sufficiency of the procedures described below either for the purpose for which this report has been requested or for any other purpose. The procedures were performed and our findings are as follows:

1. Compared the listed assessment payments represented on Form SIPC-7 with the respective cash disbursements record entries, including check amounts of $6,500.69
2. Compared audited Total Revenue for the period of January 01, 2013 through the December 31, 2014 (fiscal year-end) with the amounts reported on Form SIPC-7 for the same period noting no reportable reconciliation differences.
3. Compared any adjustments reported Form SIPC-7 with supporting schedules and work papers, to the extent such exists, noting no differences.
4. Proved the arithmetical accuracy of the calculations reflected on Form SIPC-7 noting no differences.
5. If applicable, compared the amount of any overpayment applied to the current assessment with the Form SIPC-7 on which it was originally computed. According to our findings, PFA Security Asset Management, Inc. had no reportable differences.

I was not engaged to, and did not conduct an examination, the objective of which would be the expression of an opinion on compliance. Accordingly, I do not express such an opinion. Had I performed additional procedures, other matters might have come to my attention that would have been reported to you.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the specified parties listed above and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.

RE: Exemption Statement Rule 15c3-3 (k) (1) for FYE December 31, 2014

Dear Mr. Richardson Jr.,

Please be advised that PFA Security Asset Management, Inc. has complied with Exemption Rule 15c3-3 (k) (1), for the period of January 1, 2014 through December 31, 2014. PFA Security Asset Management, Inc. did not hold customer securities or funds at any time during this period and does business on a limited basis (publicly registered non-trades REITS, and oil & gas partnerships). PFA Security Asset Management, Inc.'s past business has been of similar nature and has complied to this exemption since its inception, July 21, 1999.

Curt H. Zimmermann, the president of PFA Security Asset Management, Inc. has made available to Edward Richardson all records and information including all communications from regulatory agencies received through the date of this review December 31, 2014.

David L. Englehart has been responsible for compliance with the exemption provision throughout the fiscal year. Also, there were not any know events or other factors that might have affected PFA Security Asset Management, Inc.'s compliance with this exemption.

If you would like additional information or have any questions, feel free to call me directly at (717) 761-8485.

Very truly yours,

PFA Security Asset Management, Inc.
Curt H. Zimmermann
President
